

Give me peace

By Jahn Espino

I want to be in it

Surround me and permeate

Through me transcend

And through it release

A touch of vibration

Caressing and inviting

Seduce me

And tear down the walls

See me as I truly am

Flow and ebb

Take from me

All that holds me here

Set me free

The only one that gives me peace

Remind me of what is real

And keep me whole

Run through me

Give me purpose eternally

Not a word to say

And all will be revealed

Define for me

All that I need see

Lay it bear

So I can believe

Strike the core of my being

Enticing

Bring to me

What I need to feel

Rising deep inside of me

Releasing me

Releasing

The pain is unreal

Scream with pain and agony

Endure as one the suffering

Help me through this place

And bear the weight so I can breathe

So many things you helped me see

So many lives you lived through me

Sheltered me from the storm

And help me keep my sanity

Even though my souls intact

I thought I'd never make it back

Pull me from the edge

And help me rise from the ash

Now I stand here as I am

With brand new eyes I understand

Give me peace

Please release me
